ORGANIZER'S NOTE

Dear Innovators and Inventors,

We invite you to participate in the 3rd edition of the International Innovation & Invention Show E-NNOVATE 2022, which brings together the innovators around the world on the e-nnovate.eu platform!

E-NNOVATE is much more than an ordinary innovation show. It is an event where science meets business. E-NNOVATE boasts of a web platform with global reach and popularity www.e-nnovate.eu which will promote your innovative ideas on the international arena. Your participation in the event will allow you to present your achievements to a wide audience, establish interesting relationships with potential partners globally and take part in several accompanying events.

E-NNOVATE's mission is to promote innovation on a global scale, combine science with business and support exhibitors in all activities disseminating scientific achievements. The E-NNOVATE show is intended for scientists, start-ups, large and small organizations, schools, universities and research institutes alike!

Taking into account the ongoing pandemic situation and the possible hinderances to long distant travels for foreign exhibitors, the show will be held in a hybrid way.

We cordially invite you to be a part of E-NNOVATE 2022.

Edyta Wołczyk
Director, E-NNOVATE
CEO, IBS GLOBAL

ABOUT E-NNOVATE

The online edition (June 2-3) will be dedicated to the evaluation of inventions by an international jury through online presentations from participants, online trainings and panel discussions. It is intended for exhibitors who, due to pandemic, are unable to participate in the event in person.

The LIVE edition (June 8-10) will be dedicated to the presentation of inventions in traditionally in stalls, conferences, meetings, facilitation of Grand Prix awards and special awards. This is the part of the event where all the international participants will be able to establish new relationships, interact with business or scientific partners and participate in interesting accompanying events.
